DETAILED ACTION

Note: Objectionable claim language (Presence of possible 112, sixth paragraph, limitations)

Claims 1, 10 and 16 are objected to because of the following informalities: claim 1 recites "means to independently control" in line 6; and claims 10 and 16 recite "means to measure a power output" in lines 4, respectively. It is not clear to the examiner whether the applicants want to invoke the 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph.

When it is not clear whether a claim limitation should be treated under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, determining the patentability of that claim is difficult because the scope of the claim and the relevance of the prior art cannot be readily determined. Applicants have an opportunity and obligation to define their inventions precisely during proceedings before the PTO. They are required to specify their inventions, consistent with the guidelines described in MPEP 2181, when a claim limitation invokes 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph.

A claim limitation will be interpreted to invoke 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph if it meets the following 3-prong analysis:

- (A) the claim limitations must use the phrase "means for" or "step for";
- (B) the "means for" or "step for" must be modified by functional language; and
- (C) the phrase "means for" or "step for" must not be modified by sufficient structure, material or acts for achieving the specified function.

If the applicants wish to have the claim limitations under 112, sixth paragraph interpretation, they must: show why the claim language properly invokes 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph; identify the function; and identify the corresponding structure. They must either: (A) amend the claim to include the phrase "means for" or "step for" in accordance with these guidelines; or (B) show that even though the phrase "means for" or "step for" is not used, the claim limitation is written as a function to be performed and does not recite sufficient structure, material, or acts which would preclude application of 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph. See Watts v. XL Systems, Inc., 232 F.3d 877, 56 USPQ2d 1836 (Fed. Cir. 2000).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-7 and 9-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Biel US Patent No. 6,048,359 in view of Svanberg et al. US Patent No. 7,037,325.

Biel discloses a phototherapeutic apparatus and method of use, the apparatus comprising: light delivery probes 14; a plurality of radiation sources 22; multiple radiation output ports (see Figs 2-4); and means 12 for controlling power output levels of the radiation emitted through each radiation output port as claimed (see Fig. 1 and col. 3, lines 34-40). Biel does not teach light delivery waveguides disposed between the radiation sources and output ports. The light sources are disposed proximate the distal end of the delivery probe(s). Hence, Biel eliminates the need for using waveguides to conduct optical energy from the sources to the output ports.

However, the use of optical fibers disposed between a light source and an output port to transmit optical energy from light source to a treatment site is known in the art. Svanberg et al. disclose an alternative light delivery apparatus comprising plurality of waveguides 7,6, disposed between multiple light sources 9b and light output ports for transmitting optical energy from the light sources 9b to the output delivery ports.

Therefore, at the time of the applicant's invention, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to dispose optical waveguide(s) to between separate light source(s) and light output ports as an equivalent alternative means to transmit optical energy.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See the following references:

US Patent No. 6,416,531 to Chen, see Fig. 1.

US Patent No. 7,282,049 to Orszulzk et al., see Figs. 1 and 2.

US Patent No. 6,128,525 to Zeng et al., see Fig. 1.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
